Your sponsorship ensures that a wild bird will receive the care it needs to be released into the wild, healthy and fully capable of breeding.

Le Nichoir takes its responsibility for its patients very seriously. Our wildlife rehabilitation work requires significant technical expertise and extensive knowledge of the natural history of our patients.

As part of the professional-level care, we provide medical treatments, a balanced diet, and housing adapted to the needs of each species.

Thank you for helping Le Nichoir maintain a high standard of care for the wild birds in our program.
